LETTER FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

June 2019

Dear Colleagues:

The 2018-19 school year saw each of our schools begin the hard but necessary work outlined in our district's six-year strategic plan, work that I'm excited to continue with you in 2019-20.

Big changes are ahead: We've purchased new math and language arts curricula that will be introduced in our elementary schools this fall, part of a five-year, $6.7 million plan to upgrade curriculum across the district. We've expanded learning opportunities for our students in the creation of Eagle's Nest Program of Academic Distinction and the Booker T. Washington Credit Recovery Program. And we've begun the first phase of a three-year, $81 million facilities improvement plan that includes renovations to all 16 of our schools and Erie Veterans Memorial Stadium. All reflect our focus on instilling pride in our district and making it the most attractive choice for every Erie family.

I hope you share in my excitement for all that we've accomplished together so far and my optimism in what we'll achieve in 2019-20. Best wishes for a successful school year!

Sincerely,
