

Erie High School
Course: Poster Art
Teacher: Mrs. Welser
Room: G 213
swelser@eriesd.org

Course Description:

- Poster Art will be a class that focuses on two-dimensional art making. We will be learning about how art is all around us as a form of visual communication. We will use traditional and digital art tools to create different artwork that communicates to the viewer specific information. We will practice lettering techniques and learn effective ways to use typography. We will learn about contemporary and historical artists that correlate with our projects.

Class Rules:

- Students are to handle all class equipment with care. All students are responsible for the equipment to which they are assigned.
- Cell phones are not permitted to be out during instruction and work time.
- Class/Lab time is expected to be spent working on art assignments. Students will not be permitted to defer classwork to work on assignments from other classes.
- Food is not permitted in the classroom. Water bottles are allowed as needed.
