

3-3 Home Link

Solve each problem. A Blank Multiplication/Division Diagram may be useful. Be sure to complete all the following:

- Show your work
- Write equation with unknown quantity
- Write your answer

1. Each package of hot dogs contains 8 dogs in a package. If Bill needs 40 hot dogs for his picnic How many packages does he need to buy?

Number Sentence: _____

Answer: _____

2. Brandi made cupcakes to take to work. She placed them in 6 rows in the container. She put 9 in each row. How many cupcakes did she bring to work?

Number Sentence: _____

Answer: _____

3. The water ride at the water park has 7 cars. Each car can hold 4 people in the car. How many people can fit on the water ride at once?

Number Sentence: _____

Answer: _____

4. A group of 8 children gathered stamps for their collection. They collected a total of 72 stamps. If they each collected an equal amount, how many stamps did they each collect?

Number Sentence: _____

Answer: _____

