

Ir- to go

yo	voy	nosotros	vamos
tú	vas	vosotros	vais
él, ella, usted	va	ellos, ellas, ustedes	van

- When using the verb Ir- to go, you always need the preposition “a” after it. Similar to English, in Spanish you go “to” a place.

Por ejemplo:

- Yo voy a la escuela.
- Marta va al café.

* a + el = al

* a + la = a la

Ir Dibujo 30pt Project

Materials:

- Blank paper folded into eight equal blocks
- Pencil

Prompt:

- 8 block illustration with the following block titles only label in Spanish Draw the weather (8 pts)
  1. Hace sol (it's sunny)
  2. Hace frío (it's cold)
  3. Llueve (it's raining)
  4. Hace fresco (it's nice out)
  5. Está nublado (it's cloudy)
  6. Hace calor (it's hot out)
  7. Nieva (it's snowing)
  8. Hace mal tiempo (it's bad out)
- 8 sentences telling where people are going with the correct conjugation of the verb “ir” that matches the picture you drew. Draw the location and the people going to the place. (locations are found under Adónde vas in your Vocab Section. (16 pts – 1 pt for correct sentence grammar and 1 pt for matching with picture)
- Present 3 of your sentences to the class 6 pts.
- You must use all forms of the verb voy/vas/va/vamos/vais/van

See example below for help:

